Motives/Antecedents/Risk Factors:

- Gender (male more likely+)
- ADHD/Impulsivity+
- Ethnicity (white more likely+)
- High school drop out+
- Poverty +
- Unemployment +
- Cohabitating w/partner +
- Father incarcerated +
- History of selling drugs +
- Use of marijuana/illegal drugs +
- History of criminal activity+
- Disadvantaged neighborhood+
- Low religiosity +
- Past mental health treatment +
- History of binge drinking +
- Also see Hawkins, Catalano & Miller 1992 risk factors

Motives/Antecedents/Protective Factors: (Hawkins, Catalano & Miller, 1992)

- Strong parental bonding -
- Positive temperament -
- Strong external support system-
- Strong commitment to school-
- Involvement in church activities-
- Belief in generalized expectations, norms, values of society-

Conditions: Mediating/moderating/intervening variables

- Community Norms
- Enforcement
- Community concern about meth harm
- Meth beliefs, attitudes, norms, expectancies
- Meth production
- Laws
- Meth use
- Perceived risk of arrest
- Supply available for purchase
- Price

Outcomes

Meth associated problems (e.g., child neglect, violence, criminal behavior, health consequences, high risk sexual behavior)

Methamphetamine Logic Model